

Righting Wrongful Convictions

Wednesday, May 13, 2009
11:45 - 1:15 pm

On the Patio
Nolan, Armstrong & Barton
600 University Avenue
Palo Alto

B.Y.O.(lunch) Bag

PAABA invites you to join us for a brown bag lunch on Wednesday, May 13, featuring Attorney Kathryn Ross from the Northern California Innocence Project and guest speaker exoneree Rick Walker. Mr. Walker was wrongfully convicted of murder and incarcerated for over 12 years .

Ms. Ross will be speaking on the issue of wrongful conviction and the work of NCIP, a free legal clinic at Santa Clara School of Law.

NCIP works to exonerate indigent, wrongfully convicted prisoners by proving their innocence; helps law enforcement apprehend the correct perpetrator; studies the systemic causes of wrongful convictions; and pursues policy changes designed to improve the fairness of the justice system for all of us.

To learn more about the Northern California Innocence Project or the award winning documentary "Witch Hunt" visit the website at: <http://law.scu.edu/ncip> and view the trailer at: <http://law.scu.edu/ncip/witch-hunt.cfm>